OLD BUSINESS

O'Rourke: Mykl reported that the proposal he suggested last time had fallen through.

Historic Preservation Officer position: Dick reported from the Historic Preservation Commission meeting 9/11 that because of vacation time etc., Mark Reavis's position cannot be filled before at least December, but they will likely advertise in October or November. There was an indication at the HPC meeting that the HPC would be able to have a role in the job description and the interview process. It must be offered internally (BSB employees) first, then can be advertised more broadly (discussion suggested that "broadly" means well beyond Butte and even beyond Montana). Larry is going to contact Jim Jarvis re: possible interest.

Dumas: Larry has been soliciting bids, but many licensed contractors are not interested because the project is too small. We have one bid, for the roof work, at $22,500. There are 2 bids for the masonry work (one not quite in hand). We discussed how to approach the URA for matching; under new URA rules, they will only provide up to 25% of a project's financing. Larry will meet with Karen Byrnes (URA) regarding application procedures etc., and he will talk to George Everett about MainStreet's offer of support.

Historic Artifact Preservation (cobblestones): Discussion ended with the decision that Larry will explore with Paul Babb the possibility of planning a meeting among government, contractors, CPR, and other interested parties to discuss the issue. Mitzi and Irene volunteered to help and Dick volunteered Julie Crowley in absentia, given her interest in this.

Plans for supporting Archives bond issue: Discussion ended with Irene volunteered to talk to the Archives Board and/or Butte Historical Society regarding how we (CPR) can best help. Larry pointed out that the Butte Historical Society will be meeting at the Archives Thursday Sept. 20.

Protect-a-Gate effort: ongoing; considerable backlog. The suggestion was made to create a brochure telling people how they can do their own protecting. Robert will draft the description for Dick to convert to a brochure; Dick will take pictures next time they go out doing the work.

Newcomer's Club: Dick talked to Elaine Harris, and they will be happy to distribute our materials (CPR brochure, Nicole's design pamphlet, HIP grant flier, Uptown Historian flier, and Cultural Booklet) to their members. They would also like CPR to give a talk at one of their monthly meetings (first Wednesdays).

NEW BUSINESS

Cultural & Aesthetic Grant (Stained Glass), FY '06-'07: We got a form for the final reporting on this grant. Mitzi will take care of it.

The Board meeting August 20 focused on the new C&A grant, to fund an office, telephone, and person (about 25% time). We only got half the requested amount ($10,000 over 2 years). Discussion focused on the idea of a membership drive to raise funds that would help support the shortfall in the grant; and consensus was that even if there was a remaining shortfall, this "bringing CPR to a higher level" of professionalism was important enough that at least for the first year, we would spend from our reserve cash to make this happen (the amount would be on the order of $2500 in the absence of other revenue). Dick and Irene are to look for digital and paper copies, respectively, of the grant application, for the job description etc. The Board will meet for ongoing discussion and action on this.

Dick made several announcements and requests: (1) Irene and Dick will give their Stained Glass talk at the Missoula Public Library on October 3, as part of the library's "Know Montana" series. (2) Pat

Mohan has obtained print copies of all the SHPO historic plaques in Butte; this would lend itself well to some version of a small-scale continuation of the unfunded "Virtual Historic Butte" project. Also, Stephen Foreman in the BSB GIS department is involved in using Google Sketch-up to create 3-D renderings of some buildings, which was to have been another part of the Virtual Historic Butte Project. A meeting will be called to plot and scheme how (or if) the Virtual Historic Butte project should proceed; CPR is happy to continue whatever happens under its aegis. (3) The National Summit of Mining Communities is coming to Butte in 2008. Julie Crowley is going with a group to Leadville in two weeks to scope out the Summit for 2007, and she will presumably represent historic preservation interests. (4) Justin Ringsak, organizer of the Divides and Watersheds art and education program at MOFAB October 5-6, invited us to display our brochures. We said yes.

OTHER REPORTS

Historic Preservation Commission: (1) Discussion focused on the need for the URA to return to having its ordinance-mandated design review for funded projects. The commission decided to approach the URA in this regard, to explore how this can be attained and how the HPC's mission can also be reached. Rick Larson and Mary McCormick are spearheading this effort from the HPC. (2) The Historic Preservation Guidelines got sidetracked with much other business and Mark's resignation. Rick Larson, Mary McCormick, and Dick Gibson will be spearheading the effort to get this back on track.

OTHER DISCUSSION

None.

The next meeting will be October 9 at Dick Gibson's, 301 N. Crystal (at Quartz).
